

Is your residence or housing uncertain?

Do you lack a permanent physical address?

Do you live at a temporary address?

You Can Still Enroll in School!

The Federal McKinney-Vento Act and Texas State Law guarantee that you can enroll in school if you live:

in a shelter (family shelter, domestic violence shelter, youth shelter, or transitional living program);

in a motel, hotel, or weekly-rate housing; in a house or an apartment with more than one family because of economic hardship or loss;

in an abandoned building or a car, at a campground, or on the street; in temporary foster care or with an adult who is not your parent or legal guardian;

in substandard housing (no electricity, no water, and/or no heat); or with friends or family because you are a runaway or unaccompanied youth.

If you live in one of these situations, you do not need to provide:

proof of residency;

immunization records or a TB skin test result;

birth certificate;

school records; or

legal guardianship papers to enroll in school.

You may also:

continue to attend the school in which you were last enrolled, even if you have moved away from that school's attendance zone or district;

receive transportation from your current residence back to your school of origin; qualify automatically for Child Nutrition Programs (Free and Reduced-Price Lunch and other district food programs); participate fully in all school activities and programs for which you are eligible; and contact the district liaison to resolve any disputes that arise during the enrollment process.
